Hi Ben - I actually don't have a copy either but will probably read what I can on Google Books. Oddly not many of the chapters appear to be about changes under climate change. Still, this is good background for you to have. I suggest reading as much as you can of chapters 1-10. If you can get it through your library, all the better.

Hi Dr Fasullo,

That book looks very interesting and relevant! Is there any chance you could send me a digital copy of it? If not, I think I could apply for an Inter-Library Loan at my school. Should I read the entire book, or only certain parts of it?

Thanks!

Ben
